

Experience a Romantic Holiday in Krumlov and Its Surroundings

Magical corners, countless cosy cafés, breathtaking views... The magical atmosphere of Český Krumlov is a dream for all romantic souls. You too can have your unforgettable experience here, whether you are planning a romantic engagement, to celebrate an anniversary or a romantic holiday.

The fairytale scenery of the town is perfect for unique events. During your dream stay here, experience culture, art and adventure. The fact that the town is alive with a varied cultural life all year round is best illustrated by the musical and theatrical performances that take place in the castle and the streets under it. There are also many ongoing exhibitions of well-known and lesser-known artists in local galleries and museums that will delight you, whether you are an art lover or not. Quite simply, a visit to Krumlov can be one big romantic experience.

It really doesn't take much to create a festive moment in Krumlov. You will be enchanted by the town from the moment you arrive. The opportunity to wander through the romantic streets of the town, explore its architecture, discover its secret corners and enjoy its incredible views - this is what Krumlov offers. You will have an unforgettable experience when you decide to take one of the unconventional tours of the city and its sights. Krumlov's guides are always happy to take you through the most beautiful and interesting parts of the city, introduce you to the stories that have been unfolding behind the walls of the townhouses for centuries and give you a peek into places that would otherwise remain hidden from you. Night tours are an exciting experience, when the mysterious beauty of the darkened city becomes even more intense.

What's more, the picturesque landscape around Krumlov offers so many opportunities for walks, exploration and short trips that you will still have plenty to discover on your next visit. For a shorter walk, you can choose to hike to Křížová Hora, a pilgrimage site above Krumlov that will reward you with beautiful views of Krumlov and its romantic surroundings. For a slightly longer walk you can go to the top of Blanský les - Klet' Mountain. The romantic ruins of Dívčí Kámen castle, Rožmberk castle and many other architectural and artistic sights in the area will certainly tempt you to visit.

You can also "taste" Krumlov through its gastronomy. Just one small moment can turn an ordinary day into an extraordinary one. You can enjoy your special moment with a romantic dinner in one of the local cosy restaurants and pubs. Whether by candlelight, by the fireplace or with a beautiful view, a unique dining experience wrapped in a romantic gown will make many an evening in Krumlov more enjoyable. And breakfast right in the heart of Krumlov, by the river, on the terrace or overlooking the castle will be appreciated by many a romantic soul.

So, put all your worries aside and fully indulge in relaxation. Whether you choose accommodation with private spa or without. You can enjoy a massage, relax in a bubble bath or take a beer bath in several places in Krumlov and its surroundings. You can also relax with a glass of wine in Krumlov. You can enjoy this delicious drink in places with an unmistakable romantic atmosphere all year round, but the best opportunities are offered in the autumn during the Český Krumlov Wine Festival.

Krumlov will get under your skin as you discover this treasure on the three meanders of the Vltava River. The effect of its Renaissance atmosphere will leave you wanting more.
