A complete price list is available at the Seidel Museum Photo Studio ticket office.
All prices include 21% VAT.

The photography appointment must be booked well in advance.

In case of late arrival, the photography session may be cancelled.

The prices reflect the unique environment of the more than a century-old studio, which has undergone a complete renovation. We use original painted backdrops and props from the original studio for the photoshoots. The photography fee helps to preserve this unique cultural heritage for future generations. Thank you for your considerate approach.
